Star Rating System 1.6 is a perfect solution for those who want to have a rating script on their page. Gregory Boshoff originally wrote this PHP script some time ago specifically for Developers Resources. We have since updated and adapted it for more general usage based on "Fast Template". It should work with both static and dynamic database driven Web sites. If you do anything to improve apon the scripts performance, or find any bugs please feel free to contact us.
Features include:

Easy customization with configuration script
Based on Templates, easy to modify for your wish!
Easy install and setup, just need to edit the config.inc.php file and reuse article script.
Uses MySQL database for speed and reliability
PHP solution, 99% of the ISP support this language
